FAQ's

What does my Medcover policy cover me for?

Medcover Insurance covers you for medical expenses incurred while you are staying in Ireland up to a maximum of €2,500,000. It also covers you for

- Hospital Visits (in this case you should contact emergency assistance line - 014401762)
- Physiotherapy, homeopathy, osteopathy or chiropractic treatment necessitated by Bodily Injury up to a limit of €1,000

If I am with my spouse and children can they also purchase Medcover Insurance?

Yes, you can also purchase Medcover Insurance for your spouse and children if you are eligible to purchase the policy yourself.

Does Medcover Insurance cover me if I go on holiday while studying?

Yes, Medcover will cover you but only throughout Europe and only for a maximum of 14 days if you have a 12 month policy or 7 days if you have a 6 month policy.

If I am very ill how can Medcover help me?

On top of paying for medical expenses if you are seriously ill, Medcover will also cover costs involved in flying your parents over to Ireland if this is needed.

Will Medcover Insurance cover me if I have an illness before I travel?

No, Medcover Insurance will only pay for unforeseen illnesses and/or accidents. If you have a condition before you travel and need to get treatment because of this you will NOT be covered for those expenses by this policy.

If I have to make a claim is there any amount I must pay myself?

Yes, there will be an excess of €100 for Medcover Standard and €50 for Medcover Superior.
